

Dear Audra,

I wanted to write you a note to tell you how proud I am of the amazing young woman you have become. The days are long, but the years are short. Just yesterday, you were graduating from preschool;

Then high school;

And now, college!

You have shown incredible strength and determination to achieve so much. But remember, your achievements are not just defined by your job or your degree, but by the kind, intelligent, funny person you have become! Keep pushing forward, but live your life without regrets. There is more to your story than school and work. I am confident you will have a life full of friends, family and fun. And I am excited to see what your future holds. You forever changed my life in the best way possible, and my happiest moments are the ones with you in them.

I love you to the moon and back!

Mom
